

I opposed eliminating restrictions that would allow further media consolidations. This is against the best interest of the citizens of this country; moreover, it is contrary to the mission of the FCC.